

BROMPTON EXPIENCES

South Korea - BUSAN

Cycling a Brompton through Busan is an exercise in mindful travel. Its compact fold makes it effortless to navigate trains, quiet streets, and historic neighborhoods, unfolding seamlessly into rides through Samnak Ecological Park and past serene temples and palaces.

Beyond the city's bustle, riverside paths and green spaces invite unhurried pedalling, where each turn reveals hidden details of Busan's landscape and culture. With cyclist-friendly streets and a respectful road culture, the Brompton turns everyday transitions into part of the journey. Here, cycling is less about speed and more about rhythm, presence, and discovery.
